FRAUD LOVES A SHINING

MARK .- A great medicine is always a target for fraud. Shallow cheats, without the talent to originate anything useful, or the decency to permit an article of superior excellence to perform its mission, without striving to turn a dishonest penny by attempting to substitute trash in its place, are now engaged in imitating and counterfeiting HOSTET-TER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the most popular tonic and restorative in the civilized world. A brood of local bitters, mixtures of damaged drugs, with worse liquor, has cropped out all over the country. Although the sales of these pernicious slops are too insignificant to affect the interests of a staple remedy, it seems a duty to warn the people against them. The color of the true specific may be simulated, but its cures of dyspepsia, liver complaint, rheamatism, intermittent fever, constipa tion, nervous debility, &c., cannot be imitated.

LOCAL MATTERS.

IRISH JENNIE IN HER OLD QUARTERS.— Jennie Beattie alias Irish Jennie, the enterprising young woman who escaped from the penitentiary on Tuesday night, having been recaptured in Powbatan county, as before stated, was on Friday night taken back to her old prison quarters. She asserts that she had no outside assistance in leaving, and it appears that in jumping from her cell-window down to the yard she hurt one ankle quite badly. Though she had had little pedestrian exercise for four years, the hope of getting out of the way of the officers gave her strength to walk some thirty or forty miles. The gentle-men who took her into custody were going along the road, and observed her slowly and painfully walking some distance ahead of them. Her movements attracted their particular attention. Though in a man's clothes, it was evident she did not belong to that sex, and the gentlemen, upon overtaking her, cross-questioned her so closely that she at last discovered herself to them, and confessed that she was Irish Jennie. In accordance with law she will have at least one year added to her unexpired term, which is three vears.

Superintendent Strother is making arrangements to remove four or five of the most unmanageable of the female convicts to cells within the penitentiary proper.

LIVE INFANT FOUND .- On Saturday morning about 4 o'clock Captain Charles Bigger, superintendent of the almshouse, discovered a bundle in the front yard of the building, near one of the fountains, and on making an examination found it to contain a live female infant. It was well dressed, and had a blanket wrapped around it. It is about four or five weeks old, and Captain Bigger proposes to take charge of the little one until NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING -A. M. Jones, while in an inebriated condition, on Saturday evening attempted to go from Eighth to Seventh street along the narrow walkway on the north side of the canal, and in doing so fell into the water. He was for a time in imminent danger of drowning, but through the assistance of a gentleman, who extended him a boat-pole, was rescued, though in a very damp condition.

Foul Play. [Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 18 .- A negro named Richardson was brought to this place on this evening's mail in an insensible condition. He was found near Ashland with two large cuts on his head, and there is no hope for his life. His pockets had been rifled, and fears are entertained of foul play. He was a train hand on the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac railroad.

AN ENCOUNTER WITH THE INDIANS IN JACK GALVESTON, July 18.—A News special from Jacksboro, July 15, via Dalles, the 17th says on the 12th instant Major Jones, with 34 men, fought a large war party of Kiowas, Comanches and Apaches, in Lost Valley, Jack county, killing three and wounding three. Others it is supposed were killed and wounded among the rocks in the moun-

Major Jones lost two men-killed and two wounded and fifteen horses killed and wounded. The fight lasted three hours. The Indians numbered about 125, and were armed with improved breech-loaders. They were well mounted and used no arrows. Major Jones did not have sufficient force to pursue the Indians, who retreated in a northwesterly direction.

Galveston, Texas, July 18.—A special dispatch to the News from Sherman, Texas, states that a dispatch from Jacksonboro' (no date) says: "Last Friday, about twenty-five miles northwest of this place, a raiding band of Indians and a portion of the Wise County Rangers met. The former, being superior in force, caused the Rangers to retire with the loss of one man killed and several wounded. Later, the Indians attacked Loring's ed. On arrival of the seen nor the trail found. The troops then moved off, going south towards Keechie

Valley and arrived here at garrison to day at 12 o'clock. Later .- To-day the Indians, in heavy force, again attacked the combined force of Rangers, and atter an bour's hard fighting, night closed the fight, leaving the Indians holding the field and having the Rangers entirely surrounded. This was the situation at 8 o'clock at night, when Major Jones, of day three miles out, with only three feet of the Rangers, sent in a courier to the postcommander for immediate assistance, stating | ing of nine persons, have been given up as that he had three men wounded, twelve horses killed, and fifteen men missing, Mr. Loring also writes for long-range guns, saying that without them the Indians were able to keep them off with their Winchester rifles. Within one hour after the courier arrived, one hundred mounted cavalry were again in the saddle, going at the top of their speed for the field of action. They left here fifteen minutes after 10 o'clock, which would put them in the valley by 1 o'clock in the morning. There is no later news from the fight. The number of Indians is estimated at from 100 to 150. St. Louis, July 18 .- The Republican publishes a special dispatch from Kansas City giving an extract from a telegram from the Indian Territory to the effect that a fight occurred between a company of the Sixth cavalry under Colonel Carpenter and a large body of Comanches about thirty miles west of Fort Sill. Colonel Carpenter was badly wounded and six men were killed. The Indian loss is unknown. After the fight the Indians came upon stage-keeper and bis wife, killing, scalping, affair. skinning, and shockingly mutilating the keeper in the presence of his wife. The woman was then carried off. The latest accounts of the Indians show that they attacked a party of wood choppers killing all it is feared. The date of the fights are not given. CHICAGO, July 18 .- A special from Fort Steele, Wyoming, says: "The bridge-gang and section-hands at Greenville station were attacked yesterday and driven into Rawlins, Before leaving they killed one and wounded two Indians. All the depredations were committed in this vicinity by three different bands, but they are now united, and number 150. cians in the case of William McCormick, who died of hydrophobia June 25th, were concluded this morning. They find that Mc-Cormick came to his death from hydrophobia. They regard hydrophobia as a disease communicated only by innoculation with specific virus, and not capable of transmission from a non-rabid animal. The vote on the last clause, however, was not unanimous, three physicians voting in the negative on the ground that the question involved was not definitely determined. The physicians in their report recommend as a measure of prevention, that a person bitten by any dog or animal shall at once (if the wound is received in a part where it is proper to practice excision of the wounded part) be subject to excision in a thorough manner, and that the wound be allowed to bleed for MOS, BIBLES, ETC.,

Serious Collision on the Eric Railroad-CANASERAGA. N. Y., July 18 .- Trains Nos. 8, eastward, and 7, westward-bound, on the Erie railway (both through express trains), came in collision on the single track a mile east of Canaseraga at 9 o'clock this morning while going at the rate from fifteen to twenty miles per hour. The westward bound train carried passengers from New York at 7 clock last evening. Both engines were destroyed, and the baggage and smoking cars of the westward train were utterly demolished. A number of pas-engers in the westward smoking-car were hurt. A gentleman named Van Horne, from Philadelphia, had his left arm and leg broken, and seems to be injured internally. He appears to be the worst burt. A couple of other passengers in the same car have arms broken. and a number have severe cuts and bruises. The baggage-master of the western train, named Atkins, was killed. A brakeman of the same train had an ankle broken. The firemen and engineers escaped. The engine of the eastward train plunged through the engine of the baggage and smoking car of the westward train; smashed the front platform and glass in, the front end of the forward first-class car which was ture payment of money in excess of such ap-, filled with ladies and children, but all escaped without injury.

The baggage car of the eastward train had its end and side burst out, but the baggage was univjured. The westward baggage was destroyed and the mails soaked and torn, It is stated that the eastward train had the right of way. The westward train should or near the city of Denison, of Grayson coun- have waited at Burns', the next station to Canaseraga. The conductor of the latter says he had a new engineer this morning, and that he instructed him at Burns' to pul of the settlements to Forts Griffin and Lin- up to the station and wait for the other train; instead of which he plunged ahead. The and trains are invisible to each other a hunwas the first warning to the passengers.

> [Second Dispatch] CANASERAGA, N. Y., Ju'y 18 .- Mr. Van Horn, who was badly injured, is agent o the New York and Erie railroad. All of the passenger caches of both trains remained on the track, except the smoking-car attached to the westward bound train. The baggage man killed is Robert Atkinson, of Jersey City. This was his first trip over the road, taking the place of a man who had been discharged. R. G. Hervey, of Terre Haute, president of the Paris and Decatur railroad, has his collar-bone broken.
